

Get County Aid For Wynnewood Avenue

Commissioners Make an $8000 Grant; Street to Be Completely Improved.

STOP TEMPORARY REPAIR

President Daniel Leitch, of the Narberth Borough Council, received a formal notification from the County Commissioners last week indicating that the application of the Borough of Narberth for county aid on resurfacing Wynnewood Avenue had been granted to the extent of $8000. The State laws governing such matters require the approval of the State Highway Department before such county aid grants can be made effective. It is also necessary for the borough to appropriate and spend on the same work an amount equal to the grant from the county.

As a result of the necessity of waiting the approval of the State Highway Department, it was decided to stop immediately the work of temporary repairs on Wynnewood Avenue, which had just been started by the borough. It is impossible to state now how long the work on that street will be delayed, but as a result of the county aid it is going to be possible to do a much better and more complete job than that which the borough had planned when it was thought that county aid would not be available this year.

Hold Luncheon Wednesday

A "Donation Day" luncheon will be held at Holiday House, 10 Sabine Avenue, Narberth, on Wednesday, June 12, from 12 to 2. It is under the auspices of the Evangel Circle of King's Daughters.

Card Party Tonight

A card party will be held by the American Legion Auxiliary tonight at the Legion room of the Community Building at 8:30. There will be prizes and refreshments.

Seek More Lights

The question of more and better lighting for the business district was taken up at the meeting of the Narberth Board of Trade at its monthly luncheon and business meeting Monday noon. More standards and clusters of lights were favored. The matter was referred to the committee on public relations to be taken up with the Borough Council.

Brookline Downed in Loose Contest

Heavy Hitting by the Narberth Batsmen Produces 10-7 Win.

By John Uberti.

Despite ineffective mound work by Raleigh, Narberth triumphed over Brookline by the close score of 10-7 on Saturday, June 1. The game was close considering the demoralizing rally made by the Brookline Club, which was threatening from the sixth, until the last heave had crossed the plate. For five innings the Davismen slugged with consistent precision, forgetful of their former defeat, which mars a brilliant record of having won three and lost only one, thus putting them in a tie for first place with Berwyn.

But then in the sixth frame, when Raleigh hit one of the rival batsmen with a wild twirl, the invaders came out of their trance and cracked the sphere to the utmost corners of the diamond, and had the game been scheduled to ten innings Narberth might have witnessed another setback at the hands of their only conquerors. Heckle, Fleck, Curvin and Harris came through in fine fashion, meeting the ball on three occasions each, out of four attempts and by the end of the fifth frame their ruthless Ruthian tactics had earned them the score of 6-0, but then the visitors rallied in impressive style and almost brushed Raleigh off the peak.

Narberth got off to a good start in the curtain raiser and touched McCauley for three nicks which rewarded them with as many runs. Mulligan, lead-off man, tallied the first point when he crossed off Heckle's triple, who immediately counted from Fleck's three-bagger. Curvin singled, whereupon Vernie made possible the third run.

To Break Ground For New Methodist Church

Ground will be broken on Sunday, June 9, at 4 P. M. for the new edifice of the Narberth Methodist Episcopal Church. The new building will be located across the street on Essex Avenue from the present structure, at the southeastern corner of Essex and Price Avenues.

The dedication of the ground will be marked by simple ceremonies. Short speeches will be made by Dr. George M. Brodhead, of Philadelphia; the Rev. Harry M. Chalfont and the Rev. Samuel MacAdams, pastor of the church. It is also expected that the Hon. Fletcher W. Stites, superintendent of the Sunday school, will be back from a trip to Europe in time for the event.

Award Established By Mothers' Council

Will Be Given to Boy and Girl in Sixth and Seventh Grades.

HONOR MISS WETHERILL

Announcement was made this week of the establishment of the Nellie M. Wetherill award by the Mothers' Council of Narberth. This award will consist of $5 each to the boy and girl who during their attendance in the sixth and seventh grades of the Narberth Public School best combine a spirit of co-operation and sense of service with superior scholarship and high ideals of character and conduct.

Following are letters from Mrs. R. G. Aungst, president of the Mothers' Council, to Miss Wetherill, relative to the award and Miss Wetherill's reply: Dear Miss Wetherill:

It is my great honor and privilege to present to you a copy of a resolution passed by the Mothers' Council and spread upon its minutes and which has also met with the approval of the School Board. In it we have tried to embody and perpetuate those sterling qualities for which you have always stood.

This expresses in a very small way the grateful appreciation of the mothers of Narberth for your splendid work among our children.

With the best of good wishes I remain,

Very sincerely,
FAITH THOMPSON AUNGST,
President of the Mothers' Council.
Monday, the twentieth of May, nineteen hundred and twenty-nine.

200 Dudley Ave., Narberth, Pa.,
May 22, 1929.

Dear Mrs. Aungst:

I wish to express to the Mothers' Council my very grateful appreciation of their commendation of my efforts to do the best for the children of Narberth who have been in my charge and of the gracious manner in which it was shown. No other action that the Mothers' Council would have taken would have given me more pleasure or have touched me more deeply.

With hearty good wishes for the continued success of the Council in the future, I am,

Sincerely,
NELLIE M. WETHERILL.

Roundup a Success

The annual "summer roundup," the medical examination of children who are entering school for the first time next year, was most successfully conducted on Monday at the Narberth School. Twenty-three children reported for the examination, which was conducted by Dr. George A. Sloan, president of the Narberth Board of Health. The examination was very thorough, taking three hours and a half. Most of the children were found to be in very good condition, though a few were in need of medical attention. The "roundup," which was entirely optional, was under the direction of the Mothers' Council. Dr. Sloan was assisted by Mrs. Ruby Perishich, of the school staff.

Music Class Forming

Summer classes are now being formed for the Melody Way, the modern method of teaching the piano to children in groups. This class has been conducted through the winter under the auspices of the Women's Community Club and will continue its meetings in the club room in Elm Hall. Many of the children who have been attending the class through the winter are now harmonizing and composing in a small way as well as playing.

Four Speakers at Rotary Gathering

Problems of Retail Merchandising Discussed in Detail.

R. S. DUNNE CHAIRMAN

Narberth talent dominated the meeting of the Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Rotary Club Monday night. This, the last evening of the season, was under the direction of Ralph S. Dunne, chairman of the Vocational Service Committee.

Short speeches on business topics were made by Carl B. Metzger, Walter A. Fox, J. B. Mackenzie and Robert J. Nash. Music was furnished by a quartette made up of Wallis Boileau, David Spratt, Lewis W. Easby and Harry Messec, accompanied by William P. Bentz.

Mr. Metzger spoke of the financial side of business, urging his audience to keep in a position to command credit when needed. "Too many," he said, "wait until they need money badly before they get in a position to obtain it."

Character as a basis for loans was emphasized, and the frequent filing of business statements. Mr. Metzger is president of the Narberth National Bank and treasurer of a large coal company.

Intelligent merchandising was discussed by Mr. Fox. He divided the topic into six headings: Self, Location, Market Study, Finance, Competition and Organization. He urged the Rotarians to study not only their territory, but their own businesses. Competition, he pointed out, may be stronger from other lines than from similar ones, as all products are competing for the consumer's dollar.

Mr. Mackenzie, his partner in the advertising firm of Fox & Mackenzie, spoke on directed advertising, reiterating the necessity of a merchant knowing his own business. "Advertising grows out of the business that is to be advertised," he said.

The importance of location and the desirability of owning the store occupied were emphasized by Mr. Nash. "The best location," he said, "is the heart of the best shopping district. Don't be misled by cheaper rents on side streets."

Competition is to be sought, not feared, he said. The shopper prefers to buy in a section where there are many stores, so that the entire purchase may be made conveniently. Larger buildings, better show windows and broader stores were urged as the modern tendency.

Swimming Club Opens

The "grand opening" of the Colonial Village Swimming and Skating Club will be held tomorrow at 1 P. M. The program includes exhibition swimming by several champions, including Walter Spence, Harry Strong, Joe McQuillen, Harry Glancy, Herman Ringler and David Russell. There will also be fourteen races and contests for members. Fireworks displays and a club dance will complete the day's program.

Help Penn to Victory

Walter Masters and Bob Gilfillan, stars of the Narberth Baseball Club, aided materially in Penn's one-sided victory over Syracuse, 18-5, on Wednesday, at Franklin Field. Masters gained credit for the win, his sixth in a row, pitching only four frames and allowing one run and three hits. Masters also contributed three hits personally.

226 Seniors Will Receive Diplomas Tonight as Lower Merion Graduates Largest Class

Tonight at 8:15 o'clock in the Junior High auditorium, Ardmore, 226 members of the graduating class of the Lower Merion Senior High School will receive diplomas. The 1929 class is by far the largest in the history of the school, exceeding by ninety-five last year's class of 131.

The program will open with the delivery of the salutatory by Miss Helen Benham, 117 Simpson Road, Ardmore. The class essay will be read by Jeannette Newhall.

Charles W. Crist, Jr., will deliver the class oration.

The valedictory will be given by Ethel Joyce Iloft, of St. Davids.

Following other features and concluding the program will be the address and presentation of diplomas by

Railroad May Erect Stairs From Station Platform to Narberth Avenue Bridge

If negotiations conducted by borough officials with the Pennsylvania Railroad are successful it may not be long before commuters will leave the station platform by stairways leading to the Narberth Avenue bridge.

The finishing touches are now being given to the lengthened platform on the north side of the tracks at the eastern end. This addition of approximately one hundred feet is a step in preparation for the twelve-car trains which the railroad expects to inaugurate with the advent of the new station on the Parkway. At the present time many ten and eleven-car trains force passengers to disembark beyond the limits of the platform, so that the increased length will be in use immediately.

When the work on the new platform first started Burgess Henry A. Frye communicated with the railroad authorities relative to the erecting of stairways leading to the Narberth Avenue bridge on both sides of the tracks. Since then he has been notified that the railroad is giving this proposal its serious consideration.

Station platforms all along the line are being lengthened in preparation for the twelve-car train service which may be instituted sooner than was originally expected.

Aside from the new platform and the possible erection of stairways to the bridge, no new developments as regards the possibility of Narberth's new station have been heard of.

List Contributors to Baseball Club

Generous Response to Appeal For Funds From Citizens.

STILL MORE ARE NEEDED

Responding generously to the appeal for funds for the Narberth Baseball Club, many citizens of the borough have indicated their support of the organization. The expenses to be met by the baseball club at the beginning of each season are heavy. New equipment has to be bought and old replaced.

Though donations have been generous, more contributions are needed and will be greatly appreciated by the club. Some first-class games are being booked and the expenses connected with getting such teams as Hilldale and the House of David, both of whom will be seen here this season, are very high. All contributions may be left at Davis' store, where Manager Gene Davis will see that they are properly credited.

A partial list of contributors follows. Others will be published in later issues: W. G. Crowell, A. N. Bushnell, G. Robert McCoy, C. Y. Haist, A. Y. King, Walter Misen, Harry Roser, Joseph Leonard, Frank Beloli, Boymel's fruit market, Ernest Bauley, Giuseppe Amato, Wunder Battery and Electric Service, Alexander Young, William H. Fretz, J. S. DeHart, Essex Kandy Kounter, Charles Funk, J. L. McCrery, Ralph S. Dunne, Narberth Hardware Company, Earl Mack Laundry, Edward Tietz, J. J. Whiteside, W. E. Hurd, A. E. Dolan, W. E. Titus, Y. A. Glose, Daniel Leitch, Charles A. McIntyre, Guy Croyle, Charles Hewit, Sam Strauss, S. F. McGeoy, R. A. Cabrey, Edward A. Muschamp, C. W. Masters, Dr. LeRoy A. King, W. F. Kempf, Harry B. Wall, H. E. Jones, W. D. Russell, H. B. Barclay, J. N. Wetzel and William H. Fowler.

School Board Tonight

The final meeting of the year of the Narberth School Board will be held this evening at the school. The date, usually the third Friday in the month, was changed so as to fall before the closing of the schools for the year.

Narberth Rallies to Win Over Berwyn

Three Runs in Eighth Gives Victory and Tie For First Place.

BEAT NOBLITT, NEMESIS

By John Uberti.

While Young Graham held Berwyn at bay in the afternoon game of the Memorial Day doubleheader, allowing merely eight dispersed hits, Bob Martin, whom the Berwynites appropriately gave the appellation of the "Adolphe Menjou of the Diamond," Mickey Burns, crack "backstop," and Bob Gilfillan slapped the ball with consistency to help vanquish Narberth's foremost nemesis since the formation of the Main Line League, emerging triumphant eight runs to six.

In conquering the Redmond clan, Narberth emulated a feat, with a team of purely home-townners, which the 1928 club accomplished with a padded team. It was a valiant victory for the diminutive Graham, who thwarted the hopes of Jimmie Noblitt, greatest pitching ace of the league, and whose pals are unanimously acclaimed the unofficial champions of 1928.

Again the ingenious Gilfillan was his former self, who in 1928 was commended as the most valuable player of the season. Gilly was in a fine mood for tearing cowhide in this Memorial Day slugfest. In the morning game, which Narberth lost 7-5 to the Mitchell A. C., he came through with four hefty cracks out of five times up to bat an unexcelled .800, crashing two doubles, one of which accounted for one run and the other which promoted a pal to third, who later tallied, and he also dribbled two material singles. With Gilly sparkled Walter Masters and Thomas, who clouted two apiece, but Moffett, Kane, Ray and Quirk, of the Quaker City nine, slugged relentlessly.

Quirk crossed with the run that spelled defeat to the local nine when he opened the sixth by ambling, stole second and reached third on a sacrifice. Kane then caromed a whizzer past third and the knot was severed. Simpson carried the other marker over, scoring from third when Ray intentionally ran into Martin on first, throwing him off balance, thus preventing him from doubling to the plate.

But even champions must taste the bitterness of defeat and, like sportsmen, take it without an alibi.

Seven hundred fans turned out to see Young Graham pit his arm against that of Jimmie Noblitt, who, prior to this encounter, had hurled his club to the top rung of the Main Line League.

Narberth Bows to Havana Red Sox, 4-1

Tiaut Hurls Eighteenth Straight Victory as the Davismen Err Considerably.

By John Uberti.

Errors proved costly for Narberth in an interesting twilight game Monday night with the Havana Red Sox, colored Cuban team, giving the visitors a 4-1 victory. Three of the runs resulted directly from errors.

Narberth never had a chance against the clever Tiaut, who holds a brilliant record of eighteen straight wins prior to meeting the Davismen. Tiaut never allowed a borough batsman to get as far as second with the exception of Heckle, who walked in the sixth and made the Keystone bag on the second baseman's error, and again in the final frame, when he tallied Narberth's only run.

In this game Tiaut looked every inch the herculean hillman of the Cuban outfit, who, so far this season, since starting on their barnstorming tour from Miami, has hurled his club to sixty-eight victories out of seventy-nine contests. In this game Narberth excelled only in one thing and that was in erroneous plays, amassing five for the entire game.

Scoring one run at a time the Red Sox scored in four innings and Narberth counted in the finale. Henuandez opened on Durbin with a single, but was forced off second by Perru, who crossed when Thomas' error put Echegolleu on third.

Durbin walked Henuandez in the third, who scored when Echegolleu lofted to Curvin out in right. Saida contributed the third run in the seventh, when he singled to centre, stole second, was sacrificed to third and tallied off Perru's rocket to deep right.

Memorial Day Has Fitting Observance

Parade and Address by the Rev. George E. Barnes Were Features.

LEGION WAS IN CHARGE

Memorial Day in Narberth was observed, under the direction of the American Legion, in a manner which gave full expression to the significance of the anniversary.

Throughout the borough the parade wended its way, with Past Commander Loxley W. Peebles as marshal, and in the host came the local Legion, the ladies of the Auxiliary, the public and parochial school children, with the town dignitaries adding to the lustre of the occasion as they beamed out their limousines at the spectators, who were thronged along the line of the procession.

There, too, were the valiant fire-fighters, giving the populace an opportunity to pass judgment at close range on the excellent equipment and stalwart corps which are ever at the call of the community.

Also present was the beloved warrior of yesteryear, Rev. Shindel, bringing back memories of '61-'65 and providing evidence that a joyous spirit need never wane however numerous the years roll on.

Rev. George Emerson Barnes, of the Overbrook Presbyterian Church, delivered the address at the Memorial and the Rev. Robert E. Keighton, of the Narberth Baptist Church, made the invocation. The ceremonies were in charge of W. Russell Green, commander of the Harold D. Speakman Post.

Narberth Youth Hurt in Wildwood Crash; Cynwyd Youth Gives Aid

Harvey Knauer, 23, of 223 Lantwyn Lane, Narberth, was injured last Thursday near Wildwood, N. J., in an automobile accident in which another passenger, a girl, was killed.

Knauer had several stitches taken in his lip and lost almost all his teeth. C. Warner Koenig, of Cynwyd, and another University of Pennsylvania student, were the first to reach the scene of the crash, and rushed Letitia Moran, of East Falls, to the Wildwood Hospital, eighteen miles away, where it was found that Miss Moran had died instantly.

The three girls and Knauer had been returning to their homes from a Memorial Day trip to Wildwood in the car of Michael Krunenacker, 21, of 19 Wylie Street, Falls of Schuylkill, who was driving. The car overturned after its steering apparatus broke, causing the machine to career off the road. Krunenacker, who also was taken to the Wildwood hospital, probably suffering from internal injuries, was placed under arrest. The accident occurred near the intersection of the Avalon Boulevard and the Shore Road.

Sub-Juniors Elect

Officers for next year were elected at the final meeting of the sub-juniors last Monday evening at Elm Hall, and following the election, Mrs. C. Arley Farmer, outgoing president of the Woman's Club, and the Rev. Robert Keighton, pastor of the Baptist Church, spoke to the girls. Carrie Louise Douglas was elected president; Alice L. Maguire, vice president; Blanche Lodge, treasurer; Dorothy Miller, corresponding secretary; and Jane Murray, recording secretary.

The Old Main Line

The following historical sketch, which will be printed serially, was written by Margaret B. Harvey, and originally published in a volume issued by the Historical Society of Montgomery County in 1895. Entitled "Something About Lower Merion," it traces the history of the township from its beginnings to the 1890's with many delightful digressions.

Installment 11.

In which we hear of old methods of transporting foodstuffs to market, of social rivalries arising thereupon, and a word about old Inns.

History repeats itself, this we know. With a community composed of earlier and latercomers, it was inevitable that there should be social rivalries, more or less fierce, just as we see today. We, who live in the stone-gray mansions, imagine that the residents of the red-and-yellow palaces are our upstart enemies, but there was a time when the occupants of plain log houses thought just the same of our fathers. For there were log houses in Lower Merion, and some of them still exist scattered here and there. One, built about 1700, stood upon my grandfather's farm until 1876 and long served as a tenant house, but it was so disfigured with boards and plaster that I never knew what the framework was until I saw it pulled down. There also stood an old wooden barn of about the same age in which once hid two British soldiers, deserters, who wished to join the American army; they were discovered and aided by the Irishman who lived in the log house. So again you see the history of one farm is the history of Lower Merion and the whole country. But to return to social rivalries. I have heard indirectly, through a very old lady connected with the Stadelman family, that there was a time when all marketing from Lower Merion was carried to the city by women upon horseback, their butter, eggs and vegetables packed in saddle-bags. Two-wheeled carts, with muslin covers drawn with strings like a sunbonnet, created a small revolution: those who had the two-wheeled carts looked down upon those poor creatures who were still obliged to put up with saddle-bags. The old lady from whom I derived my information was among the favored ones whom fortune permitted to drive a two-wheeled cart. How long ago that was may be guessed when I tell you that upon one occasion she drove into Philadelphia down the Lancaster Road to the Lancaster Turnpike, thence on by the Westchester Road to town, crossing the river at the place now occupied by the Market Street bridge. She discovered that the highwaymen had robbed the mail coach, and near what we know as Sixteenth and Market Streets, tied the passengers to the trees. Before going further I would like to remark that it was a relative of this old lady, who, when a soldier at Valley Forge, obtained a furlough, came home and occupied his time in making shoes for his comrades. His name was Jacob Latch, and he belonged to the same Latch family still occupying the land in Lower Merion between the old Stadelman and Harvey properties.

But what extravagance when two-old Lancaster Road in Lower Merion is the Black Horse, still in a very good state of preservation, although no longer used as an inn; this is just over the city line and is about half way between Bala station on the Schuylkill Valley Railroad and Overbrook station on the main line of the Pennsylvania Railroad. The next is the General Wayne, before referred to, about a mile and a half further on; here for years was the only post office for miles around. The third of any prominence was the Old Buck, now used as a summer boarding house; this was once the only post office for the upper end of Lower Merion, as the General Wayne was for the lower; this large imposing building, with pretty shaded grounds, is at the junction of the old Lancaster Road; that is, the Indian trail, with the Lancaster Turnpike. Beyond this there was no antique tavern within the limits of Montgomery County. Nearby the Old Buck is a weatherbeaten structure erected many years ago, during the wave of popular excitement which spread over the country through the efforts of the Washingtonians; it is still called Temperance Hall, though now used as a printing office by the Bryn Mawr Home News. A few rods to the eastward for a long time stood the picturesque, ivy-veiled, evergreen-embowered Church of the Redeemer, recently demolished. But around these, strange to say, has grown up a queer little Irish settlement, variously called Cork, Kilkenny and Irishtown. Still it seems that even the poor are very well off in Lower Merion; any one of these houses, if removed to another location, would separately be a neat, desirable residence.

buy Buicks than any other fine car

Professional men know automobiles. Their very standing in their communities demands that they drive cars of outstanding merit and reliability. It is significant therefore that more doctors—more lawyers—more business men the country over buy Buicks than any other fine car!

You will find these discerning owners agreed that Buick combines the maximum of tasteful luxury and distinction . . . and, in addition, a margin of clear-cut leadership in power, getaway, swiftness and stamina so remarkable as to single out Buick as the great performing automobile of the day!

As a result of this leadership—in traffic—on hills—on the highway—Buick wins more than twice as many buyers as any other car priced above $1200 and pleases them so thoroughly that Buick owners alone purchase more Buicks than the total production of any other quality car.

COMPARE the delivered price as well as the list price in considering automobile values. Chevrolet's delivered prices include only reasonable charges for delivery and financing.

If you are one who has always believed that truly fine performance can only be had in a high-priced car—drive the Chevrolet Six!

Here, in the price range of the four and with economy of better than 20 miles to the gallon of gasoline, is offered a type of overall performance that will literally amaze you——marvelous six-cylinder smoothness that eliminates vibration and body rumble—power that takes you over the steepest hills—acceleration and speed that make every mile a delight—handling ease and restful comfort that leave you refreshed at the end of the longest drive!

Emphasizing this outstanding six-cylinder performance are the beauty and strength of smart new bodies by Fisher. Created by master designers—they represent an order of coachcraft never before approached in a low-priced car. Come in today and drive the Chevrolet Six!

Cleaview Applies Whitewash to Locals

Mulligan and Raleigh Retired as Narberth Is Shutout by Score of 8-0.

By John Uberti

The Cleaview nine had a clear view of the entire situation in Wednesday's twilight game and amassed eleven solid hits to win over the Narberth Club via the shutout route by the wide margin of eight runs. With the exception of Heckle, who singled in the third and stole second, the Davis men never felt the glory of passing the keystone station. The defeat was charged to Raleigh, making it his third straight for the season.

With Heil and Holstein on the lanes in the fifth, Copple came to bat and rocked the ball into the trees in centre for a home run, putting the score to its final standing. Manager Davis withdrew Mulligan in the third frame when his error proved fatal to the local cause, and Raleigh followed his footsteps in the following inning, when Graham went to the rescue only to fall as drastically in the attempt.

Narberth—Powell, 2b.; Heckle, lf.; Curvin, rf.; Babb, 3b.; Thomas, cf.; Mulligan, ss.; Blessing, 1b.; Young, c.; Raleigh, p.; Richardson, ss.; Graham, p.
